Wonderful Again

By the Tree

I feel lonely these days, so blue.
I want to fade away,
Want the world to fade away too.
Is it always this lonely without You?
Why did my younger days have to end?
Is it going to be wonderful again?I feel like it's raining in my heart-
Feel like I'm searchin for something,
But I don't know where to start.
And the dark cloud is turning my blue skies gray;
There's stones in my eyes that I need You to roll away.
Always in the back of my mind,
The things I already knew.
The whole world is looking for a sign,
They're missing the ones in plain view.
Tried to be a sinner, but time after time
I come running back to You;
And in the end, You make it wonderful again.I've been walking through the valley alone,
Falling like a rolling stone;
That's when I look around, and I finally found
I'm not the only one who's alone in this town.
We're always in the valley,
We're not alone, not alone, not alone.
Always in the back of my mind,
The things I already knew.
The whole world is looking for a sign,
We're missing the ones in plain view.
We try to be sinners, but time after time,
We come running back to the taste of Your love.
When we drink of Your wine,
Touches of blue and changes everything.
