All Those Yesterdays

Chicola

They say you can't hold on
To time when it's gone
But somehow I've saved
All those yesterdaysAnd they're bittersweet
Every memory
Back when we both made
All those yesterdaysThreads of hope and sorrow
Wind around our hearts
While we're waiting for tomorrow
It's all those yesterdays that make us who we are
Make us who we areJust know I won't forget
The laughter or regrets
No, you're never far away
You're all those yesterdaysThreads of hope and sorrow
Wind around our hearts
While we're waiting for tomorrow
It's all those yesterdays that make us who we areAnd they say you can't hold on
To time when it's gone
But somehow I have saved
All those yesterdaysAll those yesterdays
Baby, it's okay
I have all those yesterdays
All those yesterdaysAll those yesterdays
