When You Come Back Down

Tim O'Brien

You got to leave me now, you got to go alone
You got to chase the dream, one that's all your own
Before it slips awayWhen you're flyin' high, take my heart along
I'll be the harmony to every lonely song
That you learn to playWhen you're soarin' through the air, I'll be your solid ground
Take every chance you dare, I'll still be there
When you come back down, when you come back downI'll keep lookin' up, awaitin' your return
My greatest fear will be that you will crash and burn
I won't feel your fireI'll be the other hand that always holds the line
Connectin' in between your sweet heart and mine
I'm strung out on that wireI'll be on the other end to hear you when you call
Angel you were born to fly if you get too high
I'll catch you when you fall, I'll catch you when you fallYour memory's the sunshine
That every new day brings
I know the sky is calling
So angel let me help you with your wingsWhen you're soarin' through the air, I'll be your solid ground
Take every chance you dare, I'll still be there
When you come back downWhen you're soarin' through the air, I'll be your solid ground
Take every chance you dare, I'll still be there
When you come back down, when you come back downWhen you come back down
When you come back down
