Raped Embalmed Beauty Sleep

Demilich

Cleft on a pyramid has shown you a secret passage You carelessly force your way in Smell of death frightens ruthlesslyA sentence of cipher
An unknown, forgotten language
You decipher it as a name but don't know it welcomes you to deathYou are damned...Many dangers have wounded you and your friends Some embalmed corpses have blinked their eyes - no, that's an illusionBut you feel there's something wrong You've seen too many corpses
Maybe this is a mass tomb
If not you know you'll never be backYou are doomed...More and more corpses
Some of them dismembered and every member embalmed
Now you are horrified to death...You are doomed...You enter a hall
Thousands of corpses lying there Stench smarting your nose
Horror paralyzing all the thoughtsSuddenly all the corpses awake You're trying to escape
But soon you'll be one of them
Sleeping embalmed beauty sleep...
