

Beautiful Disaster

MALIQ & D'Essentials

Let's just be frank about each other
So long we act like a great pretender
I ain't a Casanova just a romance beginner
Would it be nice or would it be another disaster? It seems so hard to make decisions
As if we know what's going to happen
For all I know that you're one of a kind in a million
So should we take this chance or just keeping it silent Reff :
If loving you is wrong, I don't wanna make it right
Slowly we can make it right
Please somebody tell me
Cause I want it so bad I can't wait much longer to know if you want it
So tell me is it love, is it love, is it love that last ___???___ happy
To start something that's extraordinary
It takes no magic spell cause we have the chemistry
So would we ever be like ebony and ivory Repeat Reff If loving you is wrong, I don't wanna make it right
Slowly we can make it right
Please somebody tell me
Cause I want it so bad I can't wait much longer to know if you want it
So tell me is it love, is it love, is it love I don't know Eenie meenie miney moe
Can we make our love grow
Or we could be called a beautiful disaster (3x)
