One Man

Mark King

My friends seem so lost
But I know they don't believe what I'm sayin'
They can't see the games
That they're all playin'And I see the worried hearts
And I see the faces so unsure
But the feelings that they never felt before
But they don't get itGukumatz, kukulcan
Quetzalcoatl
Gukumatz, kukulcan
QuetzalcoatlI'm sayin'
One man with many faces
One man with many names
One man made the world we live in
One man can share the blameOne man with many faces
One man with many names
One man made the world we live in
One man can share the blameI hear you cryin'
As you've been deceived so many times
And you don't know how to deal with
All that painBut no one knows him more than me
'Cause I been a million dizzy ways
And I know what seems important
But they don't get itGukumatz, kukulcan
Quetzalcoatl
Gukumatz, kukulcan
QuetzalcoatlI'm sayin'
One man with many faces
One man with many names
One man made the world we live in
One man can share the blameOne man with many faces
One man with many names
One man made the world we live in
One man can share the blameOne man with many faces
One man with many names
One man made the world we live in
One man can share the blameOne man with many faces
One man with many names
One man made the world we live in
One man can share the blameOne man with many faces

One man with many names
One man made the world we live in
One man can share the blame
