Not That Far

Slick Shoes

Looking back what can I say?
There's been things done the wrong way
I have tried sometimes it's hard
All the time I've wasted, didn't get me farI try to live my life right, but it seems so hard
Why have I not used Your help?Now I see Your sacrifice for me
Now I know You're watching over me
Now I see the greatness of Your love
Now I know I'll never be aloneI hope You're not ashamed of me, I haven't been the best
I hope I'm not the worst, help me live my life for You
I can't do it on my own, I need Your help
If You're not tired of me, I really need Your helpNow I see Your sacrifice for me
Now I know You're watching over me
Now I see the greatness of Your love
Now I know I'll never be aloneI'm tired of wasting all this time, help me live my life
I can't do it all alone, please stay by my side
