Sculptor Void

Scar Symmetry

I expand the universe, the elastic space
And dominate behind the cosmic screen
Every mark left from phase to phase
The only evidence of where I've beenI am the missing force of gravity
That holds each universe
I affect and distribute the galaxies
Defined as blessing or a as curseObserve the sky and you will find
Within the sculptor void I lie
Now close your eyes and realize
Within the sculptor void I riseI am a thought from inside the matrix
That your mind can never process
The infinite drug, the everlasting fix
Ending the pitch black progressI am the missing force of gravity
That holds each universe
I affect and distribute the galaxies
Defines as blessing or a as curseObserve the sky and you will find
Within the sculptor void I lie
Now close your eyes and realize
Within the sculptor void I riseIn every void my presence is known
And the stillness holds my unspoken name
Now realize that the sun never sets
The planets orbit on ellipses
Flow forth into the universe unbound
Outside the frames of earth-realityI am the missing force of gravity
That holds each universe
I affect and distribute the galaxies
Defined as blessing or a as curseObserve the sky and you will find
Within the sculptor void I lie
Now close your eyes and realize
Within the sculptor void I rise
