

Girl Panic!

Duran Duran

I came by invitation
To General Chelsea Mayhem
Then going on to somewhere
Yes, I was going somewhere
A single random meeting with your eyes
And I am beaten
And now I'm going nowhere
I know I'm going nowhere
With all the voices in my head
The clever words I never said
Of all the things to happen
In a girl panic, that's driving naked through my mind
It's a crush panic, she's got me atomized
You beg me to get closer
Dress falling off your shoulder
The heat is wrapping 'round us
This city strapped around us
'Cause now I sense your mission
Is my coming demolition
And you just hold me under
I know I'm going under

With all the voices in my head
The clever words I never said
And you just let it happen
In a girl panic, that's driving naked through my mind
It's a crush panic, she's got me atomized
In a girl panic, the midnight traffic in her eyes
Like a hypnotic, and I am mesmerized
You know, you know I want you
I know you know I want you
With all the voices in my head
The clever words I never said
And you just let it happen
In a girl panic, that's driving naked through my mind
It's a crush panic, she's got me atomized
In a girl panic, the midnight traffic in her eyes
Like a hypnotic, and I am mesmerized
In a girl panic, a crush panic

She's a hypnotic, it's a girl panic
