To Mend a Broken Heart

Eclipse

Sometimes we're falling apart
And we vanish without a trace
The sunlight is gone and the storm is coming our way
When all that is gone are hitting you hard again
When death is taking up the chase, tell me justHow do we mend our broken hearts
Tell me how one can live when all is lost
Just how, how to mend a broken heartSometimes we're shattered and lost
The wounds are far too deep
You try to go on but the burden is heavy on you
When we're painting a smile on our face, is it fake or real
When black is all that I can see, tell me just
How do we mend our broken hearts
Tell me how one can live when all is lost
Just how, how to mend a broken heart
How to mend a broken heart
How to mend a broken heart
How do we mend our broken hearts
Tell me how one can live when all is lost
When love has closed its final curtain
Then how, how to mend a broken heart
