Dessert

Take you to my bedroom and I'll kiss you on your bones
I feel you in myself, but I am still alone
When you break it down, 'cause you know I'll clean you up
I feel like (?)comatosed(?), but it's not enough
Nineteen, looking through a screen
Twenty, I feel everything
Friday, is a blessing
Wait a minute, it's not your fault
Wait a minute, it's not your fault
Wait a minute, it's not your fault
Wait a minute, it's not your fault
Wait a minute--
I'll take you to my bedroom and I'll kiss you on your bones
It's not your fault
I feel you in myself, but I am still alone
Wait a minute, it's not your fault
When you break it down, 'cause you know I'll clean you up
I feel like (?)comatosed(?), but it's not enough
Nineteen, looking through a screen
Twenty, I feel everything
Friday, is a blessing
HEY.
