

Indecision

Sampha

Calculate indecision, can't cradle fear no more Bear the shame of the incision, all lain cold across the floor
Your heart pounds with precision, a king dies inside his courts
Your heart pounds with precision, a king dies inside these doors
Let it all work out Mind your tongue, inhibition, for once against the wall Mistakes of young grown provision, it's harder to let them go
From the office of wisdom, my answers don't hear their calls Laugh and leave with what you know, but the pain won't subside at all
Let it all work out Flight of noise, faith in the wise of heart and the moon protects the moon projects a light on everything we said Flight of noise, buried in the wise of heart and as the moon protects, the moon projects a light on everything we said Work out
Let it all work out
