

Rain

Aaron Fresh

(Chorus x2)

Just let the rain fall down down down

All the all the way down down down

Let the rain fall down down down

On her(Verse)

Everything was alright, alright

Everything was all good, yea

You was always by my side, by my side

And I would never be good yea

All the kissing and hugging, wish we didn't do that

'Cause you tell me how we hit and now you're runnin right back

Girl I can't take this no more

So I guess I gotta let the rain pour(Pre-Chorus)

I thought of telling that your boyfriend ain't real

But baby who don't tag a feel

I'm just sayin you already noticing

Forgive me if I'm wrong(Chorus x2)

Just let the rain fall down down down

All the all the way down down down

Let the rain fall down down down

On her(Verse)

So why you callin me now?

I put the phone on vibrate so I wouldn't hear a sound but uh

To see your picture come up

My heart single but my friends seem to give up

And I'm like...

I wish we didn't start as friends

That way this relationship would be much easier to end

And I'm sorry

But no need to pretend

I could find a next girl, give my love once again(Pre-Chorus)

I thought of telling that your boyfriend ain't real

But baby who don't tag a feel

I'm just sayin you already noticing

Forgive me if I'm wrong(Chorus x6)

Just let the rain fall down down down

All the all the way down down down

Let the rain fall down down down

On her
