

This Is Where It Ends

Barenaked Ladies

I don't buy everything I read
I haven't even read everything I've bought
I don't cry every time I bleed
My eyes are dry but they're bloodshot I have faith in medications
I believe in the Prozac nation
You play doctor
But I've lost patience
This is where it ends
This is where it ends [Chorus]
Call the police and call the press
But please dear god don't tell my friends
This is where it ends
This is where it ends Where's my pride where's my self esteem
Does it show in the drinks I've bought
I don't hide every time I'm seen
But I try not to get caught. Make excuses for behavior
Can my illness be my savior
Hid my heart while you still gave yours
This is where it ends
This is where it ends [Chorus] She says she wants to live in a movie
I say I want someone else, to stand behind me and write it all down.
Cause I can't be bothered doing it myself,
And I don't want the responsibility of proving it's importance. I have loved and I have waited
Been picked up and been sedated
Mental health is overrated
This is where it ends
This is where it ends [Chorus]

Songwriters

PAGE, STEVEN/ROBERTSON, ED Published by

Lyrics © Warner/Chappell Music, Inc. Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>