

Porcelain Doll

Inker & Hamilton

I can't even believe we're havin' this conversation again

Oh my God

Here's the thing I need you to stop treatin' me

As if I'm simple or naive

As if I don't know nothin' 'bout the world

I understand you think you're protectin' me

Well, I could use a little room to breathe

And the respect you give a woman not a girl

Here's the thing I appreciate all the love

The constant caterin', kisses and hugs

But lately I'm wonderin' what you do it for

If the reason you act all over sweet is

'Cause you want to keep me on a leash

I have no choice but to show you the door

If you wanna cradle me like a little girl

And lock me down, I'm not your possession

I'm a full grown woman, I am not your porcelain doll

If you wanna cradle me like a little girl

And lock me down, I'm not your possession

I'm a full grown woman, I am not your porcelain doll

Here's the thing you wanna put me in fancy clothes

And take me everywhere you go

And show me off to all your fancy friends, okay

Well, here's the thing I really don't mind the clothes

I love a nice dress with some open toes

But a trophy I'm not so baby think again, hey

And here's the thing you always wanna hold my hand

And say things to me like I'm the man

So let me do what a man's suppose to do, okay

Well, here's the thing you can be the man all the while

Understandin' I'm not a child

You're the man for sure but baby I'm grown too, hey

If you wanna cradle me like a little girl

And lock me down, I'm not your possession

I'm a full grown woman, I am not your porcelain doll

If you wanna cradle me like a little girl

And lock me down, I'm not your possession

I'm a full grown woman, I am not your porcelain doll

Said you gotta respect me totally otherwise I'm gonna up and leave

And baby I know you don't want me to do that
Babe you gotta respect me totally, so when I say back up off of me
Just kiss my cheek and politely move back
Oh, you wanna cradle me like a little girl
And lock me down, I'm not your possession
I'm a full grown woman, I am not your porcelain doll, hey, hey, hey
You wanna cradle me like a little girl
And lock me down, I'm not your possession
I'm a full grown woman, I am not your porcelain doll, hey, hey, hey
I'm a full grown woman, I am not your porcelain doll, one more time
I'm a full grown woman, I am not your porcelain doll
That's it in a nutshell
