Glow

Karmacoda

I can see the light that's floating all around you
Twisting you in ways you never thought it could doTake you as you're given and I want to know
All your little secrets all the ones that glow
GlowI can never claim to be your only blue truth
What with everything I need to share with youTake me as I'm given and I want to show
Ever single secret all the ones that glow
Every single secret it just wants to glowEvery single secret glows
Take me as I am (all your secrets)
I'll take you safe with me, you'll seeI'll glowTake you as you're given and I want to show
Every little secret every one that glow
Take me as I'm given and I want to glowTo glow, glow, glow...
