Cold Blooded

Damageplan

Cold blooded
Ice in my veins
Cold blooded
Ice in my veins
Ice in my veinsSpit in your face, another worthless liar
I know your kind
Save me the smile, you're just a cut-throat bastard
I read your mindNothing without the victim that you feed on Everyone knows you're just a parasite
What can you do after you've killed it slowly?
Where can you go after you bled it dry?For now, I'll let you believe
I let you get to meAren't you in for a shock
You stupid motherfucker?You'll get what you deserve
A victim of your own game
You're already dead to me
Your turn to get playedNow I'm cold blooded
I've got ice in my veins
Now I'm cold blooded
Just disengagedHaving control, the only validation
You constantly need
Power to you becomes intoxication
On which you feedSpewing your lies and your manipulation
Playing with lives to you is just a game
Being around you makes me fear that you might Get on my skin and then contaminateFor now I'll let you believe
I let you get to meYou don't even see it coming
Do you?You'll get what you deserve
A victim of your own game
You're already dead to me
Your turn to get playedNow I'm cold blooded
I've got ice in my veins
Now I'm cold blooded
Just disengagedYour face just serves to remind
Everything that I don't wanna be
Guess my mind was made up long ago
You won't get one more thing from meNow I'm cold blooded
I've got ice in my veins
Now I'm cold blooded
Just disengagedCold blooded

Ice in my veins
Nothing without the victim that you feed on
Everyone knows you're just a parasiteCold blooded
Ice in my veins
Nothing without the victim that you feed on
Everyone knows you're just a parasiteCold blooded
Ice in my veins
Nothing without the victim that you feed on
Everyone knows you're just a parasiteCold blooded
Ice in my veins
