Stranger

Gamma

You call me up a bit too much
We never get in touch
You move your lips upon the dials
You never realizeYou don't get closer to me
You get stranger
You're always talking to me
Like a stranger
You treat me like a strangerYou call my name
When no one's near
You think that no one hears
You try to smile
But something's changed
You think your heart is for meYou don't get closer to me
You get stranger
You're always talking to me
Like a stranger
You treat me
Like a stranger, stranger(Stranger stranger stranger stranger)But life goes on and nothing's said
You keep going through hell
When morning comes
You're still alone
You're still out on your ownYou don't get closer to me
You get stranger
You're always talking to me
Like a stranger
You treat me like a stranger
You get stranger
You treat me like a stranger
You get stranger
You treat me like a stranger
You get stranger
You treat me like a stranger
You get stranger
