

Strong Enough

Des'ree

Trying to figure out
Just where your life is goin'
Can you see the picture
In the purple sky?
Silently you're walkin'
But where are you headin'? Questions terrorize, ah, yeah
Space inside your mind, ah, yeah Are you strong enough for love?
Are you strong enough for peace?
Are you strong enough to die?
Tell me why I'm strong enough for you
Are you strong enough for me?
'Cause down, down in the city
Love ain't always pretty They try to take your soul and mind
But you won't let them
Never wear your destiny
Outside your smile
Always talk in riddles
So you keep them guessing Never criticize, ah, yeah
Keep an open mind, ah, yeah Are you strong enough for love?
Are you strong enough for peace?
Are you strong enough to die?
Tell me why I'm strong enough for you
Are you strong enough for me?
'Cause down, down in the city
Love ain't always pretty They're holding out their hands
Begging for some time
Can you spare a shilling
Can you spare a life?
You try to give them food
But they just refuse you Deep down inside, ah, yeah
You know you've tried Are you strong enough for love?
Are you strong enough for peace?
Are you strong enough to die?
Tell me why I'm strong enough for you
Are you strong enough for me?
'Cause down, down in the city
Love ain't always pretty 'Cause are you strong enough?
Strong enough for me?
Strong enough

Strong enough to seeStrong enough
Strong enough to be
'Cause down, down in the city, yeah
Love ain't always prettyStrong enough for love?
Are you strong enough for peace?
Strong enough to die?
Tell me whyStrong enough for me
Oh, I'm strong enough for you
'Cause down, down in the city, yeah
Love ain't always pretty, noYou're strong enough for me
I'm strong enough for you
You're strong enough to see
That down, down in the city
Yeah yeah, yeah yeah, yeah yeah
Love ain't so pretty
