My God Is Able

Chike the Promise

He's able
Able God e
My God is able e
My God is able to open my prison gate
My God is able to make me rise again
My God is able to turn my life around
My God is able to make me smile again
My God is able to open my prison gate
My God is able to make me rise again
My God is able to turn my life around
My God is able to make me smile again
He's able to put a smile on my face
My God is able to change all my story
My God is able to open my prison gate
My God is able to make me smile again
My God is able to open my barren womb
My God is able to heal me, all my sickness yeah
My God is able to make me rise again
My God is able to make me smile again
Raise your voice
Oh oh oh my God is able
Oh oh oh my God is able
Oh oh oh my God is able
My God is able to make me smile again
Raise your voice and say
Oh oh oh my God is able
Oh oh oh my God is able
Oh oh oh my God is able
My God is able to make me smile again
He has prevailed to sit upon the throne
He has prevailed to change all my story
He has prevailed to make me rise again
My God is able to make me smile again
He has prevailed to open my prison gate
He has prevailed, He had prevailed over my sickness e
He has prevailed to make me rise again
My God is able to make me smile again
Raise your voice and say
Oh oh oh my God is able

Oh oh oh my God is able
Oh oh oh my God is able
My God is able to make me smile again
Raise your voice and say
Oh oh oh my God is able
Oh oh oh my God is able
Oh oh oh my God is able
My God is able to make me smile again
You are worthy
Worthy Worthy is the King Amen
Worthy worthy is the lamb Amen
Worthy Worthy is the King Amen
Worthy worthy is the lamb Amen
He defeated the death
He raised from the dead
No one like Him
He is worthy in the morning
He is worthy in the night
Father, we praise your name
You are worthy to be praise
Worthy worthy is the lamb
Amen
