

Screamer

King's X

at night they come while you dream in between the wake and sleep then you feel paralyzed and soon you end up screaming no no sometimes the voices are so clear the fear just grips your soul you see but there's nothing there you know you're not alone, not alone oh no had a dream the other night, didn't go away over and over again
make the dreams go away, will they ever end over and over again you wake, the feeling is relief then it comes, vibrations so strange and then oh no, you realize you've woken up inside your dream no no had a dream the other night, didn't go away
over and over again
