

Stupid Cupid

Aubrey Bouskill

Cupid, you're so stupid
You shot me down with the wrong arrow
Cupid, look what you did
And now I'll never be the same When his world crumbles, when his fears double
I won't be the one
Oh, when his eyes glow and his heart beats
Oh, I won't be the one, I won't be the one Cupid, why'd you do it?
Give me a love that's not my own
Cupid, you're so foolish to give a love but not a home When his world crumbles, when his fears double
I won't be the one
Oh, when his eyes glow and his heart beats
Oh, I won't be the one, I won't be the one Not to tuck him in, not to blow him kisses
Not to come home to, not to share my life with When my world crumbles, when my fears double
He won't be the one
Oh, when my eyes glow and my heart beats
Oh, he won't be the one, he won't be the one Cupid, I'm so stupid to think that I could be the one
