In My Head

Ninjas With Syringes

In My Head (Official Lyrics + Audio Video)

In My Head I was focused
In my heart I was strong
But it's so hard to stay right when all's gone wrong

You never will have a good time
It's all bullshit and cigarette smoke
And these are from the dollar signs that mark what you've known

You never will stay focused
You never will be true
Funny how these things didn't change when I left you

If you ever have a bad time
A little bit fucked up and insincere
But she sure sounded smart to me after a shot and a beer

Lay down a couple more and tell me a joke
The only thing about you is I hope you choke
These were the kindest words you ever gave to me
Lay right there I'll be back next year
Wash it all away with a shot and a beer
These were the fucked up words that were in your head

You never will stay focused
You never will be true
Funny how these these things didn't change when I met you
If you ever have a bad time
A little bit fucked up and insincere
But she sure sounded good to me after a shot and a beer

Separation good
Separation's fine
Separate yourself of you'll be doing the time
Separation's good
Separation's neat
Separate yourself from your wants and your needs

So always stay faithful

And always be true
And it's funny how these things won't matter when she leaves you

If you ever have a bad time
A little bit misanthropic and insincere
But she sure sounded smart to you after a shot and a beer

I said she sure sounded bright to me after a shot and a beer
Yeah she sure sounded good to me I see her next year-
