Golden

Monrose

When it feels like the worlds not on my side
Finding it hard to see the light
When theres nothing but grey clouds in the sky
I know one day things will turn out rightSome dreams are worth chasing (chasing)
Though hearts can get broken (broken)
If its only for a minute you hold them
Some moments are goldenDoesnt matter how long its gonna take
How many mountains I must climb
Not counting the wrong turns that I take
Im gonna get this somehow sometimeSome dreams are worth chasing (worth chasing)
Though hearts can get broken (broken)
If its only for a minute you hold themSome moments are goldenAnd this is something that I thought could never happen to me
The best is yet to come I promise baby, just wait and see
The world is ours if we believe (if we believe)Some dreams are wprth chasing (worth chasing)
Though hearts can get broken
If its only for a minute you hold them (if you hold them)
Some moments are goldenSome dreams are worth chasing (worth chasing)
Though hearts can get broken
If its only for a minute you hold them (if you hold them)
Some moments are goldenSome moments they are golden (3x)
