

Weight of my World

Fozzy

Can you take the weight
Can you take the weight of my world I am the flames in a burning building
Evacuate (So why are you rushing in)
It's torn and frayed
This thread I'm holding
About to break (So why are you making up) Whoa, I'm pulling you down
So can you take the weight
Can you take the weight
Whoa, it's crashing around
So can you take weight Can you take the weight of my world
Can you take the weight
Can you take the weight of my world
Can you take the weight
Can you take the weight of my world
I hear the sound of a thousand voices
Calling me out (We all know what you have done)
So flip the switch, blow it all to pieces
I can't be fixed (I hurt everyone I love) Whoa, I'm pulling you down
So can you take the weight
Can you take the weight
Whoa, it's crashing around
So can you take weight Can you take the weight of my world
Can you take the weight
Can you take the weight of my world
Can you take the weight You think that you can carry this affliction
Resurrect this black hole heart in me
I know that there is truth in your conviction
Are you strong enough to hold me off again
Whoa, I'm pulling you down
So can you take the weight
Can you take the weight
Whoa, it's crashing around
So can you take weight
Can you take the weight
Whoa, I'm pulling you down
So can you take the weight Can you take the weight my world
Can you take the weight
Can you take the weight of my world
Can you take the weight

Can you take the weight of my world
