Forgotten

Jamestown Story

There was a time when all was perfect no worries, but now that's blurry We had something that no one had but it's all gone now, ain't that so sad He came along, took you away, he opened his arms wide, there you stayed You smiled, and waved goodbye, and for the last time, I looked in your eyes Love can fade, can break away,
can be forgotten, but not replaced
You might lose hope, you might lose faith
but don't throw it all away, cause your afraid Now all I ask, is for him to care for him to treat you like I were always there But please don't love him, come back to me I'm begging you, I'm on my knees

Please don't forget, all the times we spent and all the places, we saw and went You were soo happy, what did I do wrong was I not good enough, all along Love can fade, can break away,
can be forgotten, but not replaced
You might lose hope, you might lose faith
but don't throw it all away, cause your afraid
Love can fade, can break away,
can be forgotten, but not replaced
You might lose hope, you might lose faith
but don't throw it all away
Love can fade, can break away,
You might lose hope, you might lose faith
but don't throw it all away, but don't throw it all away
but don't throw it all away, cause your afraid
