

Praying For You

Mandisa

Ooh I wonder if you think of me
Like I think of you
Do you long for my touch
I'll honor you with purity,
So you can have all of me
Am I saying too much? For now I'm waiting, anticipating
Baby, I know that you'll be
The one that's strong when I am weak
I'll love you through the good and the bad
For rich or for poor
May not have much but this I'm sure
Until my dream comes true
I'll be praying for you
Praying for you Oh I wonder what's in store for me
Who you're gonna be
Have you ever passed me by
And I know that you are working hard
For our picket fence and yard
Maybe a little girl and boy But for now, I'm waiting,
Oh anticipating
Baby, I know that you'll be
The one that's strong when I am weak
I'll love you through the good and the bad
For rich or for poor
May not have much but this I'm sure
Until my dream comes true
I'll be praying That you will fear the Lord
I'll pray we'll be on one accord
That God will bless everything we do
I pray that He will shield your heart
That we will not be torn apart
And side by side in Jesus' name we'll stand
But for now we're waiting, anticipating (Oh)
Ooh For rich or for poor
May not have much but this I'm sure
Until that dream comes true
I'll be praying for you
Everyday I'm praying for
