

Hourglass Sand

Echo Orbiter

The weight climbs higher and faster
The curious eyes are no more
The kids are wrong and theyâ€™re bastards,
Because I finally lost my cool

My style wonâ€™t be seen on MTV
My mundane fashion sense is boring
My outdated slang draws laughter,
Because I finally lost my cool

Any standards abandoned
Results of a lax disposition
A life like that of Howard Hughes,
Because I finally lost my cool
