What If I

Manning

Most of the time
I'm advising my friends
About what's wrong or right
When they call me at night
Now I'm confused
'Coz my mind says I'm a fool
That it's time to say goodbye
But my tears cannot lie
And my heart says I will lose if I try
What if I would sacrifice my life for you
What if I would say I'd give up my dreams too
What if you were mean to be my destiny
But what if love, was never meant for you and me
I'm trying real hard
Cause I know that a friend is something you can't be
Our love is too deep
Or is this our fate
Just a never ending battle no one else can see

I refuse to give in
But I'm afraid to start something we can't win
What if I would sacrifice my life for you
What if I would say I'd give up my dreams too
What if you were meant to be my destiny
But what if love, was never meant for you and me
Love is magic
Love is irresistible
But love is fearless and not able to see
Love is gorgeous
Love is unpredictable
But love is brainless and sometimes so are we
What if I would sacrifice my life for you
What if I would I'd give up my dreams too
What if you were meant to be my destiny
But what if love, was never meant for you and me
And our love was never meant for you and me
No our love was never meant for you and me
