

Restless

Sara Evans

I'm a leaf on the river
Fallen from the tall oak tree
Drifting down this moving stream
Wherever this life carries me
I'm a tumbleweed in the desert wind
Just tumbling while the suns shining
I have no boundaries
Call me a gypsy I'm restless
Just rambling
What do you do, where do you go
When nowhere feels like home
I'm restless Am I an angel
Fallen from heavens grace
Oh it feels like that someday
And I can't find my place
I guess God just made some of us
To live and die by highway dust
Guess I just have to trust
On the days I'm crawling
That this is my calling I'm restless
Just rambling
What do you do, where do you go
When nowhere feels like home
I'm restless
