

Hurts to Be in Love

Andru Donalds

(Music & Lyrics: Vanelli)More and more

Your kiss feels like an half open door

I can't get in

Please stop me before I begin

It hurts to be in love

When you've never gained enough

It hurts to be in love

Send this urge

Keeps my body right on the verge

We touch and then

I wanna do it over again

It's hurts to be in love

When you only want me half as much

It hurts to be in love

I'm always worried

You think that I'm pushing to hard

Baby it hurts me

When you tell me that I'm going to farIt's hurts to be in love

When you only want me half as much

Oh baby it hurts

It's hurts to be in love
