

Girl of 18 Summers

18 Summers

I close my eyes but I can't sleep
I hear you crying in my dreams
I'm flying high, i'm falling deep
It's your blood life is cheap

It's a game and you will lose
You're just a story in the news
There's a whisper in the air
The weeping willow doesn't care

I close my eyes I fall asleep
I hear you crying in my dreams
I'm flying high i'm falling deep
It's your blood life is cheap

Who's the friend who's the foe?
Where's the smile in your face
Say goodbye and say hello
It's the end of the show

She was a girl of 18 summers
Innocent
And when she died the angels cried
The devil's here tonight
She was a girl of 18 summers
Innocent
And when she died a second time
The angels cried
