

That's All I Know (Right Now)

Sonic Youth

My nerves are buzzing and my heart is God I think... but I might be wrong this goes to to the attic and buzz on the wall but it's all right I don't care at all `cause I'm yours and you're mine and that's and that's all I know right now that's all
that's all
I know, right now it's dark outside except for pinpoint light lost in a fight picking up from the street I'll stop over once and lay it at your feet `cause I'm yours and you're mine
that's all I know right now
that's all
that's all
I know, right now oh, baby it's dark out there but oh, baby it's dark in here oh, darling I don't care no nomy TV's up against the wall like a painting abstaining but I myself had a thought for my lips it's delicious lady won't you have a sip `cause I'm yours and you're mine
and that's all I know right now
that's all
that's all
I know, right now
