Why aren't you over me yet like a fool?
Why am I still a good person to you?
It's already been a few months since we broke up
But why are you still living in the memories?

There are a lot of good people next to you
It's okay if you start a new love
I'll truly wish for your happiness with a smile
I keep seeing you wandering around
So I can't start a new love
Oh yeah, at this late hour, you're

Why did you come to me again?
When it's me who's too cowardly to let you go?
I hear your sad cries on the other side of the door
Why did you come to me again?
When I've already cooled down

I have no more warmth to share with you anymore

No more, no more, Iâ€™m not someone you can lean on anymore

Fine, cry all you want,
if thatâ€™s what it takes to wash me all away
If thatâ€™s what it takes to erase all the lingering attachment in your heart
Iâ€™m not worth the pain youâ€™re going through Iâ€™m not the same person who was with you in the past
I donâ€™t wanna lie
and say I let you go because I love you
Iâ€™ll stay with you just for today, hurry and get up
I can hold out my hand but itâ€™s just for today

We canâ€™t go back, you know that
You canâ€™t be happy next to me
I keep seeing you wandering around
So I canâ€™t be at peace for a single day
So I canâ€™t start a new love
Oh yeah, at this late hour, youâ€™re

Why did you come to me again?
When itâ€™s me whoâ€™s too cowardly to let you go?
I hear your sad cries on the other side of the door
Why did you come to me again?
When Iâ€™ve already cooled down
I have no more warmth to share with you anymore

Please stop,
Iâ€™m getting colder as time goes by
So Iâ€™m afraid that Iâ€™ll hurt you
Just live happily as if you have something to prove to me
No more, Iâ€™m not someone you can lean on anymore

Why did you come to me again?
When itâ€™s me whoâ€™s too cowardly to let you go?
I hear your sad cries on the other side of the door
Why did you come to me again?
When Iâ€™ve already cooled down
I have no more warmth to share with you anymore

No more, no more, Iâ€™m not someone you can lean on anymore
