

Open Up Your Back Door

Canned Heat

Well i know you dont love me and you told me and you showed it too Well i know you dont love me and you told me and you showed it too I need your loving right now, no matter what you say or do You put me down pretty baby now you know just how i feel,
You put me down pretty baby now you know just how i feel I need your loving right, come on lets make a little deal Turn your lights down low,
open up your back door,
Turn your lights down low, open up your back door, Im gonna make a little treat, dont want nobody to know
Hurry up little girl, you know i cant stay all night
Hurry up little girl, you know i cant stay all night
Your loving may not talk and i didnt come here to fight
Turn your lights down low,
open up your back door,
Turn your lights down low,
open up your back door
Im gonna make a little treat, dont want nobody to know
