Last Name London

Theophilus London

And this here is my destiny
And it felt more fuckers death of me
Last night, evil stole my heart
But somehow I feel it resurrected me

So don't stop now keep testing me
And you can talk your shit but have a check for me
And if your whole team ? desert the hip hop
Tell them they can get off my Herbie Hancock

It's more refresh a breath could be
And if you don't know I tell you what's next for me, for me
From a bird's view, from the third view
In the sky without no curfew

From a bird's view, in the sky without no curfew
I know you've been waiting for the thunder
Let's give them the Indian summer
