Love Song

Caliban

You are my world, my cage, my love, my hate,
My everything
When I am blind, You'll take my hand
And lead me safe and soundYou are the one who makes me smile
You are the one who makes me cry
Next to you I feel strong
Next to you nothing feels wrongI am here today (right now) to say I want you
I am here today (right now) to say I love you
More then you'll ever knowYou give me hope for more,
You show me how to fall
Today I will forget the pain
Because I know you're hereYou are the one who took my fears
You give me wounds that will Never disappear
Nothing you do could hurt me
But one wrong word could cause
My endI am here today (right now) to say I want you
I am here today (right now) to say I love you
More then you'll ever know(My world, my cage, my love, my hate, you are my everything)
(You took my fear, gave me wounds that only GREW)I am here today (right now) to say I want you
I am here today (right now) to say I love you
More then you'll ever knowI LOVE YOU (I love you, I love you)
