

Carving a Giant

Gorgoroth

Might and Lust my work
No trust is for man
Father of unholy damnation light rewarding assistance for an endless lifeTo every living worm Writing an omen
To every living walking through the twilightIn every night there is a FIRE!!Singing and Burning
The Curse of a child
Bring the pain outOurs was spirit
Raped Intellegence
We exist...all...to awaken and save us from war!The essence of doubtCarving a giant Carving the eye of a god
Create METorn so much
Taint a love
Chasing a giant Forcing the wakes of a stormStanding as human Facing a god
Fighting and turning your secretsand every night I am the flame and every night there is a fireTo anyone.. raking the twilight.
