She Is The Sunlight

Trading Yesterday

If all the flowers faded away
And if all the storm clouds decided to stay
Then you would find me
Each hour the same
She is tomorrow
And I am todayIf right is leaving
I'd rather be wrong
She is sunlight
The sun is goneAnd if loving her is
Is a heartache for me
And if holding her means
I have to bleed
Then I am the martyr
Love is to blame
She is the healing
And I the painShe lives in a daydream.
I don't belong.
She is the sunlight.
The sun is gone.I said if right is leaving
I'd rather be wrong.
She is the sunlight,
The sun is gone.
She is the sunlight,
The sun is gone.
