Shut Up

Gilby Clarke

Sorry, it doesn't mean you understand
You show me, enough of you
Some day, you will find happiness
And maybe you won't be such a drag

And no one really knows
Why it's so hard to laugh
I said I won't be cruel
But it's so hard to be your man

Oh, baby won't you shut up
Shut up
You already got me hooked
Oh, honey won't you shut up
Shut up
Read like a story book
Baby, won't you shut up
Shut up
You got a fascination with love
Some time's love's not enough

Funny how everything you want
You always get
You're so charming
And so desperate
One day, I knelt beside the bed you were sleeping in
And I remember why I'm so ashamed
So, baby won't you shut up
Shut up
You already got me hooked
Oh, honey won't you shut up
Shut up
Read like a story book
Baby, won't you shut up
Shut up
You got a fascination with love
Some time's love's not enough

And no one really knows
Why it's so hard to laugh

I said I won't be cruel
But it's so hard to be your man

Oh, baby won't you shut up
Shut up
You already got me hooked
Shut up
Read like a story book
Baby, won't you shut up
Shut up
You got this fascination
This fascination I just don't understand
Shut up
Ooh
Shut up
You ain't charming honey, you're just desperate
Come on, honey
Shut up
Shut up
