Shining

Amorphis

My soul is bleeding, I feel so small
Afraid that this will never end
Can't understand the pain in my bones
I sleep through another tranceClimb over the rainbow
From here you can see so much
I need someone to take me down
But ohh, who can you trust?Got so many things to say but it's something I don't wanna be
Gotta get away 'cause it's time to shine, to shine, to shine
Like a fallen angel I run, I won't ever see the sun
See the circle is now complete, yet the harvest remains undoneWhere hemlock grows and vermin crawl
All dreams descend with fear
Crushed by the darkness that wells inside
The beast that I hold so dearClimb over the rainbow
From here you can see so much
I need someone to take me down
But, ohh, who can you trust?Got so many things to say but it's something I don't wanna be
Gotta get away 'cause it's time to shine, to shine, to shine
Like a fallen angel I run, I won't ever see the sun
See the circle is now complete, yet the harvest remains undone
