Every Second Counts

Steve Thorne

Look at the mountain, look at the river
Look at the city and look at it glitter with you
'Cause every second counts in loveIt's time for a shake up, so deal with your break up
And quit with the makeup just watch me take up with you
'Cause every second counts in loveHere I go
(Here I go)
Here I go
(Here I go)Here I go
(Here I go)
Here I go
(Here I go)Here I go
(Here I go)
Here I go, yeahLook in the mirror, everything's clearer
You get what you're given, it's not a decision for you
'Cause every second counts in loveI'll try and deliver, I'll learn to forgive her
I'm gonna take it, so just watch me make it with you
'Cause every second counts in love, oh yeahHere I go
(Here I go)
Here I go
(Here I go)Here I go
(Here I go)
Here I go
(Here I go)Here I go
(Here I go)
Here I go, yeahEvery second counts in love
Every second counts in love
Every second counts in love
Every second counts in loveI wanna look at the mountains, look at the river
Look at the city, look at it glitter with you
'Cause every second counts in love, yeahHere I go
(Here we go)
Here I go
(Here she goes)Here I go
(Here we go)
Here I go
(Here she goes)Here I go
(Here we go)
Here I go, yeah
(Here she goes)Every second counts in love

Every second counts in love
Every second counts in love, love, love
Every second counts in love, love, love
Every second counts in love, love, love
Every second counts in love
