Nothing Left to Say

Late Night Alumni

Another day has come and gone
And I've been holding in
Not holding onFeeling out of place, I
I'm wanting to escape, I
I pack my bags
With nothing left to sayTo sayIt's when I think I've figured out
The figure's simply turning
Inside outBurn before it catches, I
I rummage through the ashes, I
I turn the page
With nothing left to sayTo say
To sayAnother day has come and gone
And I've been holding in
Not holding on
