

80's Girl

Descendents

She says you're the only one
But she's an 80's girl, and she can't get enough Treat you so right till your supply runs dry won't you please love my friends
Vroom - in a brand new car, she drives to the beach
Knows the language well, the moves and the speech Behind a blinding smile hides her empty eyes
won't you please love my friends
Won't you please suck my friends
Won't you please 80's girl needs a friend
Party down with everyone
80's girl needs a friends
Love you for the weekend
won't you please love my friends
She's so modern
She's so stylish
Mohawk on one side, long hair on the other
She's got all her bases covered
She always wants someone else
She's an 80's girl, looking out for herself so where do you draw the line Between a whore and a concubine
80's girl needs a friend
Getting the goods and having such a good time
80's girl needs a friend
Love you for the weekend
80's girl needs a friend
Never, never let it happen again
Won't you please love my friends
Won't you please fuck
