Endless Love

Magnum

You're a believer of the wayward call
Heavens above what comes with that
No crystal gazing on an empty shore
Don't dip your eyes, don't turn your backYou make no promises when you break their hearts
Your magic power turns them to dust
You're off and running long before it starts
That's what you do to stay untouchedNo endless love, can't find no endless
No endless love, can't find no endless love, tonight
No endless love, can't find no endless loveI've turned the corner and there's no one there
You've peeled your shadow off the wait
I've crossed the border and so please be aware
I'm never sure of you at all
