Maybe

Will Smith

Oh, oh baby
Ooh, gotta know yeah
Baby, baby, baby, baby, baby, baby
All right fellas, let's do it
Yo ma we got this thing right, it's like makin' me think like
It's like fillin' my heart up not makin' me hazy
Just fillin' my mind up with all of these maybes
I'm tryin' to figure exactly the thing
It's like got me rackin' my brain
It's like tryin' to put words to a smile
Were like tryin' to figure out, forget it look
It's really kinda hard to explain how your smile been burnt in my brain
And how your perfume sing a sexy song to my nose
And how your finger tips gentle like the petals of roses
Maybe it's the way you comb your hair
Or maybe it's them stylish clothes you wear
Or maybe it's them little things you do
Or maybe it's just you, I don't know
Maybe it's your attitude
Maybe it's your point of view
Maybe it's the time we spend together
Maybe we could do this thing forever
Maybe it's your soldier rage
Maybe it's your golden gaze
Maybe it's the way we blend together
Maybe we should do this thing forever
Remember we met with shakin' T-shirt that first night
That was the worst night right
Well, I mean, we had fun and all, yeah, thats true
But you had somebody else and I did to
So it felt like karma and fate had formed a team
To keep me from the girl of my dreams
But in the end I made friends with hope and destiny
And then well the rest is history
But yo it wasn't easy though trust in me
Tryin' to turn you and me into us
You my homie my lover my best friend
The white house to the ghetto you blend right in and I dig that I could never imagine this passion I feel

I mean couldn't imagine how we could last what I feel
But if someone do somethin' to you, shoot girl I might just
Maybe it's your attitude
Maybe it's your point of view
Maybe it's the time we spend together
Maybe we could do this thing forever
Maybe it's your soldier rage
Maybe it's your golden gaze
Maybe it's the way we blend together
Maybe we should do this thing forever
I must tell you how I love you
Maybe your my soul mate, maybe my best friend
You make me and mold me a better man
Yes I can believe in love
Oh yeah yeah yeah oh yeah
Maybe maybe maybe
Oh no, no, no, no,
Maybe it's your attitude
Maybe it's your point of view
Maybe it's the time we spend together
Maybe we could do this thing forever
Maybe it's your soldier rage
Maybe it's your golden gaze
Maybe it's the way we blend together
Maybe we should do this thing forever
