

Endlessly, She Said

Afi

Walked into our world and made
Horrible sounds
I can still hear them today
(Bleakly they sing)
Beautiful now
For they all passed my love
Still each time I always meant
Every word, every one.
Though in time they finally bent
Every word, every one, every word
"I will wait for you", she said
Endlessly
"I will wait for you", so spoke
Misery
I returned to you but found
My empty home
The radio told me to stay
(As it burned on)
I sang alone
Here will I pass, my love
Still each time I always meant
Every word, every one
Though in time they finally bent
Every word, every one, every word
"I will wait for you", she said
Endlessly
"I will wait for you", so spoke
Misery
I have been waiting for you
Biting as you talk me through
I have come to relieve you
Of life and love
I will wait for you
I will wait for you
I will wait for you
I will wait
I will wait
"I will wait for you", she said
(I will wait)

Endlessly
"I will wait for you", so spoke
(I will wait)
Misery
I will wait for you
Wait for you
Endlessly
"I will wait for you"
So spoke
So spoke
Misery
I will wait straight through
As I wait for you
Dear
Endlessly
