Fake Out

R.L. Kelly

I wish I could be something better but I cant, I wont let me I feel like theres something looking, in my eyes, all of the time sundog illusion
it wont fake me out this time dumb thoughts
delusions
wont fake me out this timeI wish you could be something better but you cant I wont let you I feel like youre always looking, in my eyes, all of the time sundog illusion
wont fake me out this time
wont fake me out this timeyoure pushing me on Im used to it my catch all wont hold feelings your sweet overtone confuses me my catch all wont hold desire let go of the feazing and hold on to me
