Knives

Chicosci

A cross, a heart no longer beating
So were dealing with the devil tonight
But still were speaking softly
I hear you singing to the other side
Shes sleeping with the enemy
While murdering a friend
A kiss to betray, the silent flight
And the knivesAnd the knives
Shes gone, let's sing her to sleep
This knife in my hand, grasping
The lies! The song is growing louder
Were you wishing I would die tonight?
My back, the color crimson
Honey, please, the crime wasnt mine
Wont you keep it all inside?
Dont cut the feeding hand
A kiss to betray, the endless fuck
And the knivesAnd the knives
Shes gone, let's sing her to sleep
This knife in my hand, grasping
Youre gone; well sing you to sleep
Nothing in your hand, fadingShes gone, let's sing her to sleep
This knife in my hand, grasping
Youre gone; well sing you to sleep
Nothing in your hand, fadingShes gone.. sing her to sleep
This knife in my hand, grasping
Liars never learn at all
Youve been given the chance to fly
So long, my dear
A thousand times goodbye
Liars never learn at all
Youve been given the chance to fly
So long, my dear
A thousand times
