

Daydream

Samuel Larsen

I drift into another world again, I wanna have it all, you fly me to your galaxy and then, that's when I start to fall upon the floor, I won't let this angel get away, because you're taking me down in a different way, but I don't know what I have to say, don't know what I have to say, I'm anxious cos' I wanna stay, hold me now don't runaway;
I feel it in my bones, I wanna have it all,
who wants to be alone, I'll feel it when I fall in love again,
cos' I JUST WANNA DAYDREAM WITH YOU,
no I JUST WANNA DAYDREAM WITH YOU a fire's building up inside again, I found that I'm a renegade, I ran away, I can't stay, champagne, can you feel the night is taking all of those lights away?
its just stars,
well I hide behind the milky ways I just wanna feel love in a different way, but I don't know what I have to say, don't know what I have to say, your'e taking me to your fantasy, feels just like it's meant to be;
I feel it in my bones, I wanna have it all,
who wants to be a lone, I'll feel it when I fall in love again,
cos' I JUST WANNA DAYDREAM WITH YOU,
no I JUST WANNA DAYDREAM WITH YOU but you won't no more cos' you can't decide, is it gonna burn out like a fire inside, I can't take no more of you by my side, with your marble skin and your take me eyes, called you yours and you call you mine, but you won't no more cos' you can't decide no.
